DAILY PUZZLES WOMAN IS MURDERED IN HOME AT HAMPTON

Indications Point to Terrific Fight Made Against Her Assailant-Negro Washerwoman Held by Officers Pending Investigation.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hampton, Va., March 18.—Mrs. Ida Belote, the mother of eight children, and the daughter of a former prominent merchant of this city, was found murdered in her home in Creek Avenue this afternoon. Mrs. Belote had been knocked in the head by some unknown assallant, who had taken the foresight to stuff a rough towel down her throat, in order to prevent her from making an outery. She received as severe blow on the back of the head and another over the right temple.

The house in which the murder was committed was spattered with blood from one room to another, and gave every indication that Mrs. Belote had made a terrible fight for her life against her assailant.

This afternoon the officers arrested
